DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 22-35 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 8/26/2004.

Applicants traversed the restriction on the ground that "while the different groups of claims can be classified in different classes, there is no further search that is needed to examine claim groups 11 and 111. The inventive features recited in claim 22, for example, is similar to limitations recited in claim 3, which has already been examined in substance" (Remarks, 8/26/2004, page 9).

The Examiner would like to confirm that the invention in claim 22 is not the same as the invention in claim 3 and an examination of newly added claim 22 will require further search/consideration and would cause a serious burden to the Examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 2 recites the limitation "said medical implant" in line 2. There is no positive antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. The recitation "a medical implant" presented in the preamble of claim 1 but not in the body of the claim, therefore is not a positive antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless

Art Unit: 3731

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1, 3-5, 7-14, 16-19 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by LETENDRE et al. (6,214,036).

LETENDRE (Fig. 1-5) discloses male locking body member 14 having flexible locking supports/guide fingers 20, locking members 28, alignment extension (see reproduced Letendre's Fig. 2 on page 6), female lock receiving body member 60 having first body end 52 with indented portions/space openings 54, extension receiving cut out (see reproduced Letendre's Fig. 2, page 6) and lock operating sheath 50 as recited in the claims. Notice that sheath 40 can slide back and forth over section 28 of the male locking body member including the alignment extension to engage or disengage (or reversibly engage) the male locking body member to the female lock receiving member as recited in claim 3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3731

Claims 2, 6, 15 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over LETENDRE et al. (6,214,036).

As to claims 2, 6 and 15, LETENDRE discloses substantially all limitations as recited in the claims and the medical device secured to female lock-receiving support member 60 instead of the medical implant is secured to male locking body member 24. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to secure the LETENDRE medical device to a female lock-receiving support member 60 as claimed because this configuration is only a switch of the securement of the medical device to attach to male locking body member 24 to a securement of the medical device to attach to female lock-receiving support member 60 as recited in the claims without any significant improvement in the performance of the device.

As to claim 20, LETENDRE discloses substantially all limitations as recited in the claim except the medical device is a stent instead of a filter as recited in the claim. Even though the intended use of the device is different, LETENDRE device includes substantially the same structure as the device in the present invention, therefore, claim 20 is unpatentable over LETENDRE device.

Response to Amendment

The amendment filed on 4/9/2004 under 37 CFR 1.131 has been considered but is ineffective to overcome Letendre-'036 reference because the claim languages still read on Letendre-'036 device as indicated in the above rejection.

Art Unit: 3731

Conclusion

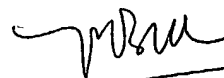

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
